Supervision Received and Given:

Reports to the Director of Resident Services. This employee is responsible for both the compliance of the FSS program and the end products of the department. Employee receives both written and oral instructions. The incumbent of this job must be able to work independently, performing complex work in an accurate and timely manner without close supervision. The position entails balancing competing priorities. Employee has no supervisory responsibilities.

Guidelines:

Most work is performed according to existing procedures or written guidelines such as HUD regulations, handbooks, desk references or existing records. The employee will frequently be required to use independent judgment in making recommendations and decisions.

Complexity:

Incumbent performs multifaceted work requiring an understanding of HUD rules and requirements relative to FSS program eligibility, income, rent, inspections and contract procedures. The employee must be able to handle interpersonal situations involving conflicts between assisted participants and landlords, with skill and professionalism.

Scope and Effect:

The employee works with the Director of Resident Services, FSS program applicants, participants, and other employees. The employee's work is essential to the successful operation of the FSS program. The employee's efforts affect other employees and residents throughout the housing developments and/or HCV program.

Personal Contacts:

The employee's contacts are primarily with residents and other agencies that provide assistance to the FSS program. Most contacts are structured in nature and the employee is expected to use normal tact and professional courtesy. The purpose of such contacts is to bring community services and tenant services to MHA's residents, foster resident pride and participation, and provide various kinds of support and assistance for individual families.

Physical Demands:

The employee may drive lightweight vehicles, and may be required to push, pull and/or lift objects weighing up to and more than 25 pounds, such as boxes of canned food, tables or a resident who must be helped into and out of a vehicle.

Work Environment:

Work, involves the normal risks and discomforts associated with an office environment, but is usually in an area that is adequately heated, cooled, lighted and ventilated. The employee's work is performed both indoors and outdoors,
